

READY to WORK?

Ithaca High School student working as a cashier in restaurant services.

Dryden High School student working in the mail room at a large corporation.

Dryden High School students working in the billing office at a local insurance company.

"The training I got helped me find an interesting job with a great wage—better than I would have done without it."

Gain the advantage of being WORKER READINESS CERTIFIED.

High school students preparing to enter the workforce can gain the advantage of being recognized and preferred for hire by employers. The Worker Readiness Certification course, recognized by Tompkins County Youth Employment Council, exposes new workers to the skills they need to meet employer expectations. Successful participants receive the official Certified seal on their working papers.

Participating employers among others, include:

- Audrey Edelman G Associates
- CDLM CPAs
- Challenge Industries
- Cornell
- Emerson Power Transmission
- Integrated Acquisition
- Ithaca College
- LaTourelle Country Inn
- Leather Express
- Taughannuk Falls Inn
- Tompkins Community Action
- TST BOCES
- The Computing Center
- Tompkins County Chamber of Commerce

For a full list of employers visit: www.tompkinsworkforceny.org
Contact your High School Working Papers Official for more information on how you can participate.

